The Supporting Young Scientists Equity and Access Program aims to maximise STEM education opportunities for NSW high school students who are:

- experiencing financial hardship
- from remote or regional areas
- from a low socio-economic background
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander
- from any other backgrounds that might need support.

Statement of Support

Please include your understanding of any equity and access circumstances that may impact on this student's ability to participate in the STEM activity proposed in the Supporting Young Scientists Equity and Access Program application.

I understand that the information provided in my application will remain confidential and used by the NSW Government only for the purposes of assessing the application, evaluating the performance of funding awarded under the Supporting Young Scientists Equity and Access Program and evaluating the performance of the Supporting Young Scientists Equity and Access Program.
